Dear Jean:

Welcome back to New York. I was really extremely pleased with my trip on Tuesday to the Port. It makes a big difference to be on the spot and to meet the key people that provide all our services and materials for the U.S. campaign.

As usual, it was a privilege to spend so much time with you and M. Genin. I know how busy your schedules are. (If M. Vernon has five meetings on Friday, I can imagine how many M. Genin has!)

I will be talking with the Ruder & Finn affiliates in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk (Hampton Road) to check out possible dates for the 1981 campaign -- that is either the week of February 23 or March 9 -- and also to arrange a trip for you in early December.

I also can confirm that we can reinstate the program for an additional $2,500 fee -- $1,750 to go back over the lists which have already been developed and $750 for supervision. Any time which I will spend on the campaign from now until we start billing again will be included in the overall cost, unless something extraordinary develops which would require a great deal more time than we anticipate. Billing of our fee would begin in December in the amount of $3,625 for 4 months. Out-of-pocket expenses will be billed as incurred. These figures are estimated for a four-city program. As New York is included, the expenses for luncheons would total approximately $5,100 rather than $4,800 (estimating $25 per person in New York and $20 in other cities, 60 people at each of four locations).

If you decide to include another city in the program, the additional fees would include research of the guest list, arrangements of the Ruder & Finn affiliate and supervision, amounting to approximately $4,000 plus expenses.

That's about it. Our meeting with M. Lagnel was very helpful and I anticipate that the exchange of names and information will bring you excellent results in the 1981 campaign.

Please convey my appreciation for a very pleasant day to the Le Havre people, especially M. Genin and, also to M. Lagnel.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Barbara Burns
